

The GGS is a nationally recognized private university funded by Dieter Schwarz Foundation. It focuses on part-time Master's programs in management and law and provides continuing education programs for managers.

GGS Business School in cooperation with one of the leading companies in the Retail Food sector, LIDL, has created a joint program to complete your training attending our MBA or MSc programs while developing your professional career in Germany. We are looking for young graduates who want to join us:

We offer:

➤ Job: Project Manager Transport Logistics

Development and improvements to logistics processes in the central warehouses and innovative ideas to cost-effective transport solutions.

Your Tasks:

Management of international projects from development to roll out. Support and advice to the Head of logistics abroad. Optimization of transport logistics at international level. Conduct independent negotiations with national and international transport services. Analysis of key figures and initiating appropriate measures..

Profile:

You will have a Master Degree in Business Administration or Engineering and also logistical and technical knowledge. You will need to be fluent in German and English (B2 for MBA program and C1 for MSc Program). You will be easily adaptable to move to other countries in Europe and will have Logistics expertise in Retails Food and projects. You are a good team player and have a "hands on" mentality.

➤ Master's programs:

- MBA in General Management
- MSc in Business Management

Our program offers a job in LIDL headquarters and the assistance, entirely financed, to one of its Master.

For more information
Marta Marina,
International Sales,
Phone + 49 07131
645636-56.

Are you interested in this challenge? Send us your complete CV along with a cover letter to the address below quoting job title:
marta.marina@ggs.de

GGS
German Graduate School of Management and Law
gGmbH
Bildungscampus 2
74076 Heilbronn
www.ggs.de

